

FPPTA Webcast Invitation

In the FPPTA's continuous efforts to expand and improve upon its educational program and offerings, we are pleased to announce the FPPTA will host an online presentation. We hope you'll consider participating in this free online session on Wednesday, August 28th, 2013 at 11:00AM EST.

“Retirement Income Planning”

Presented by Martin H. Ruby, FSA and William P. O'Connor, CEBS,
Stonewood Financial Solutions
August 28th, 2013 -11:00AM EST

Our members often think about retirement: more time for golf, more time for travel, more time for family. But are they thinking about their retirement assets, and if those assets can support their retirement plans?

Chances are, most of us could use some help figuring out how to balance our retirement funds with our retirement dreams.

In this webcast, Stonewood Financial Solutions CEO Martin Ruby, FSA will share his insights on Retirement Income Planning, including how to:

- Create a Retirement Income Plan
- Maximize Social Security benefits
- Eliminate longevity risk, or the risk of outliving your money
- Determine the best product for your funds
- And more

Stonewood creates proprietary financial solutions that balance growth and security... in ways the market has never seen before. As an actuarial firm, Stonewood has revolutionized the industry by putting actuaries – the engineers of the financial industry – to work for clients, not companies. Let Marty share his insider knowledge and ideas with you.
